Course Overview

A basic qualification in health and safety for managers and supervisors in organisations. The course aims to give managers and supervisors an understanding of everyone's safety and health responsibilities in the workplace and enable them to recognise how they can influence, control and monitor risk to improve safety and health issues. Face to face or virtually, this course can be delivered from 3-5 days according to need or via e-learning and is assessed via a test and a practical assessment.
